

Institutional Introduction of Co-organiser:

Central Sanskrit University, New Delhi

Central Sanskrit University, New Delhi, stands as India's foremost institution devoted to Sanskrit learning, research, and preservation. Headquartered in the capital, the university commands an expansive academic and institutional presence, comprising 12 campuses across the country, 4 Adarsh Sanskrit Research Institutions, 22 Adarsh Sanskrit Mahavidyalayas, over 180 affiliated colleges, and numerous dedicated research centres. Officially acknowledged as the largest Sanskrit university in World with its Campuses and the students, it plays a transformative role in promoting Indian Knowledge Systems. Its influence transcends geographical, philosophical, and intellectual boundaries, positioning it as a cornerstone of Sanskrit scholarship and a guardian of India's cultural heritage.

Financial Support for Delegates Attending the 19th World Sanskrit Conference, 2025

As part of its enduring commitment to fostering Sanskrit scholarship and ensuring inclusive academic participation, the university under the dynamic leadership of its Vice Chancellor and Executive Council is extending financial assistance to eligible Indian delegates attending the 19th World Sanskrit Conference, scheduled to be held in Kathmandu, Nepal, from 26th to 30th June 2025.

The categories of participants considered for this support include Heads of Institutions, traditional Sanskrit scholars and pandits, artists and performers rooted in Sanskrit traditions, faculty members from Sanskrit institutions, and dedicated research scholars. Selected candidates will receive assistance covering/conference fee, travel and accommodation expenses. This initiative reaffirms the university's mission to cultivate academic excellence, promote grassroots intellectual engagement, and elevate the global presence of Sanskrit through robust participation in premier international forums.

Keynote Address by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor

The inaugural session of the Conference will be graced by a keynote address from Professor Shrinivasa Varakhedi, Vice Chancellor of Central Sanskrit University. An eminent scholar of Sanskrit literature, Indian philosophy, and indigenous knowledge traditions, Prof. Varakhedi played a pivotal role in shaping India's National Education Policy 2020 as a member of its drafting committee.

His address will offer profound insights into the evolving trajectory of Sanskrit studies, the integration of traditional wisdom with contemporary education policy, and the imperatives of global collaboration. A dedicated session will be held to document and preserve this seminal discourse for future scholarly engagement.

Role and Significance of the Convener

As a co-organizer of the Conference, the university ensures smooth academic and logistical coordination under the able guidance of the Convener. All registered participants will be provided with comprehensive conference materials including kits, identity badges, notebooks, bookmarks, mementos, and other essentials. The Convener plays a crucial role in upholding the academic integrity of the event, streamlining its organization, and extending gracious hospitality serving as an indispensable pillar of the Conference's success.

Institutional Collaborations and Acknowledgements

The 19th World Sanskrit Conference is further enriched by the active participation of several esteemed academic and cultural institutions. Their scholarly gravitas, administrative acumen, and dedication to cultural preservation significantly contribute to the success of this international gathering. All supporting institutions and individuals will be formally acknowledged as contributors and partners, embodying the inclusive and collaborative ethos that defines the global Sanskrit community.
