

2 NIGHTS / 3 DAYS SIGHTSEEING TOUR

CHITWAN

Bird Watching: Begin your morning with an exciting birdwatching tour in Chitwan, where the dense jungles and riverbanks come alive with the calls of exotic birds. With over 500 species, including vibrant kingfishers, majestic hornbills, and elusive Bengal floricans, this experience is a paradise for wildlife photographers and nature lovers. Expert guides help spot rare and migratory birds, making it a thrilling start to the day.

Jeep Safari: Embark on an exhilarating Jeep Safari through Chitwan National Park, venturing deep into the jungle in search of wildlife such as the one-horned rhinoceros, Bengal tiger, wild elephants, and various deer species. Accompanied by an experienced naturalist, this safari offers a chance to explore different terrains, from dense forests to open grasslands, maximizing wildlife sightings.

Nature Jungle Walk: Experience the raw beauty of Chitwan on a guided Nature Jungle Walk, where you can observe wildlife up close in its natural habitat. Walking through the dense forests and along riverbanks, you'll encounter various bird species, reptiles, and mammals while learning about the park's diverse ecosystem from expert guides.

Canoeing: Drift along the serene Rapti or Narayani River in a traditional dugout canoe, offering a peaceful way to observe aquatic life and bird species. As you glide through the water, you may spot marsh mugger crocodiles sunbathing along the banks and various water birds thriving in their natural environment.

Tharu Cultural Performance: Experience the rich traditions of the Tharu community through an engaging cultural performance in Chitwan. This lively showcase features traditional Tharu dances, including the famous stick dance, reflecting their deep connection to nature and agrarian lifestyle. The rhythmic beats of the madal (drum) and the vibrant costumes create an immersive experience, offering insight into the unique heritage of the indigenous Tharu people. This cultural evening provides a perfect opportunity to appreciate their customs, music, and storytelling traditions.
